V. CALL TO THE PUBLIC:

Mr. Sloan invited guests to speak on any item not included in the agenda. Mrs. Maxon addressed the board on her retirement at the end of the school year and thanked them for the opportunity to teach at San Simon School.

VI. REPORTS:

6a. Mrs. Wade gave the maintenance report on behalf of Mrs. Fierro. The TRUST has completed the repairs to the locker rooms. The campus wide fire system design is complete, and the procurement phase application has been submitted to SFD. Maintenance is working on planting grass again in certain areas.

Mrs. Wade’s report included discussing the playground equipment selection, junior high track & coed softball is in full swing as well as high school track, softball, and baseball. The senior trip during spring break went well. The Spring Blood Drive is scheduled for April 17, Prom will be on April 18 and the FFA Banquet on April 24.

Mr. Lentz presented the board with the results of the Tony Komadina award. He was notified last week our high school girls’ sports program was a finalist. On April 7, there was a virtual interview with four students and four coaches. He received notice today our girls high school program was the winner. This is 1A – 3A sports. Kudos to our girls!

6b. Mrs. Rothpletz’s report included no changes to the monthly budget. The Student Activities accounts were slow this month. The juniors had revenue for the concession stand and the athletic club for banners. She gave an overview of the Auditor Questionnaire that will be discussed further in Action Items. We had a performance audit with Grants Management. There were no findings.
